

Terms and Conditions

1. General

All advertising copy is subject to approval by the Publisher. The advertiser and/or advertising agency agree that the Publisher shall be under no liability for its failure, for any reason whatsoever, to include any advertisement or insertion. The advertiser and/or advertising agency assume liability for all content (including text, representation and illustrations) for advertisements printed, and also assume responsibility for any claims arising against the Publisher.

2. Materials and delivery

Bioenergy International is produced using Adobe InDesign on a Mac platform. We prefer to receive your advertisement material(s) digitally supplied as Print Optimized PDF or EPS (no layers). All photographs, illustrations and materials are to be saved as 300 dpi and colours in CMYK. Ensure that your advertisement is the correct size for the booked insertion!

Send material(s) to Jeanette Fogelmark, jeanette.fogelmark@bioenergyinternational.com. They must reach her by the material deadline(s) as specified in this confirmation. Once received, your materials are checked after which you will receive confirmation by e-mail. The advertiser and/or advertising agency assumes all responsibility for ensuring that the correct materials have been received in good time.

Any photographs, artwork, illustrations or materials supplied that require additional production or handling work, are subject to production costs as shown in the rate card. Any such costs incurred for advertisers are charged separately, in addition to space charges.

Advertising materials are stored for a period of twelve (12) months from the last date of usage. Thereafter the Publisher reserves the right to erase/destroy all material supplied.

3. Payment terms and cancellation policy

The Publisher is entitled to payment to the amount as agreed in this order, upon having completed the printing of the advertising and having taken reasonable steps to see that the publication will be distributed. Invoice(s) for the agreed order will be sent to your company within three (3) weeks of the distribution date for the chosen issue(s). Payment is due within thirty (30) days from the invoice date thereafter any outstanding amount is subject to additional fees and/or interest charged.

In the event of a cancellation of the order, for whatever reason, any discounts are made void. The full current list price rate(s) for any published advertisement(s) or insert(s) referred to in the order will be charged inclusive any outstanding difference between the discount and the list price rate of the published advertisement(s) or insert(s). For any unpublished advertisement(s) or insert(s), a cancellation fee of 15 % of the value of the cancelled order is charged. An advertisement or insert is considered published once the material deadline for the issue has passed.

The agreement is valid from the date of acceptance by the customer (either by signing this order confirmation or confirmation by e-mail) until the final advertisement has been published.

Once again, many thanks for your order and welcome as an advertiser to Bioenergy International.
